South West Regional Transfusion Committee

RTC Update

RTT Objectives/Focus:

- Maternal Anaemia – the regional survey highlighted that there is some keenness for a regional approach, and this is being progressed by the RTC Chair via NHS England SW and the Obstetric Lead for the Maternity Network in the region.
- Consent – anticipated recommendations from the Infected Blood Enquiry
- TXA - regional focus to continue

Transfusion Survey:

- As well as adding a link to QS138 on survey landing page, there is a piece of work starting to consider the relevance of some of the questions and to reformat the survey to enable reports to be produced via SNAP.

SW RTC Meeting, 22.05.24

- Invitation and agenda circulated. Education theme is coagulation in trauma.

Education:

- The title of the next national webinar, hosted by the SW RTC as part of the NBTC education programme, is Hazards of Transfusion and is confirmed for 11.06.24. Poster and link to register to be circulated shortly.
- Transfusion Still Matters for staff with more than 2 years' experience, is being held virtually on 02.07.24. Poster and link to register to be circulated shortly.
- The working groups including the PBMG and the TLM continue to support education pertinent to their members.
- The regional BMS education programme, designed to support the national BMSEGDG, by covering core topics continues to roll out

The working group have suggested 4 workstreams

Blood and Transplant

Communications

Communicate with TPs regularly

Ensure that the information is relevant

Agree a communication strategy with TPs and signpost TPs to active surveys

Agree on a central location for information to be shared to help reduce email traffic

Surveys

Surveys to be designed to capture:

The roles and the responsibilities of the TPs

Number of TPs

Differences in the roles

How the role has changed and the rate of change

Aspirations of the TPs

Identify support required for the role of the TP

Surveys to be short and feedback to the TPs as soon as possible

Framework/Job Description

Review previous frameworks

Analyse survey feedback from TPs to develop framework

Ensure that framework is approved and has appropriate governance

Levels of expertise

Education resources for TPs to be included

Identify gaps, including knowledge, education resource, support etc and highlight accordingly

Posters/Presentations

Develop posters, presentations that can be used locally, regionally, nationally and Internationally

Caring Expert Quality

How can you help the working group to develop a TP framework?

As the project develops, we will require your suggestions, feedback and opinions.

Blood and Transplant

Communications

TPs working group will email all TPs initially via the RTC administrators

The email will have a link to a short survey- please complete the survey as it will ask how you want the group to communicate with you and to suggest a working title for the project so that we can brand all communications and updates the same and make it easier to identify a communication from the working group.

Surveys

Please respond to the surveys- the more TPs that respond the more data we have.

As the project develops the survey team will issue reports

Framework/Job Description

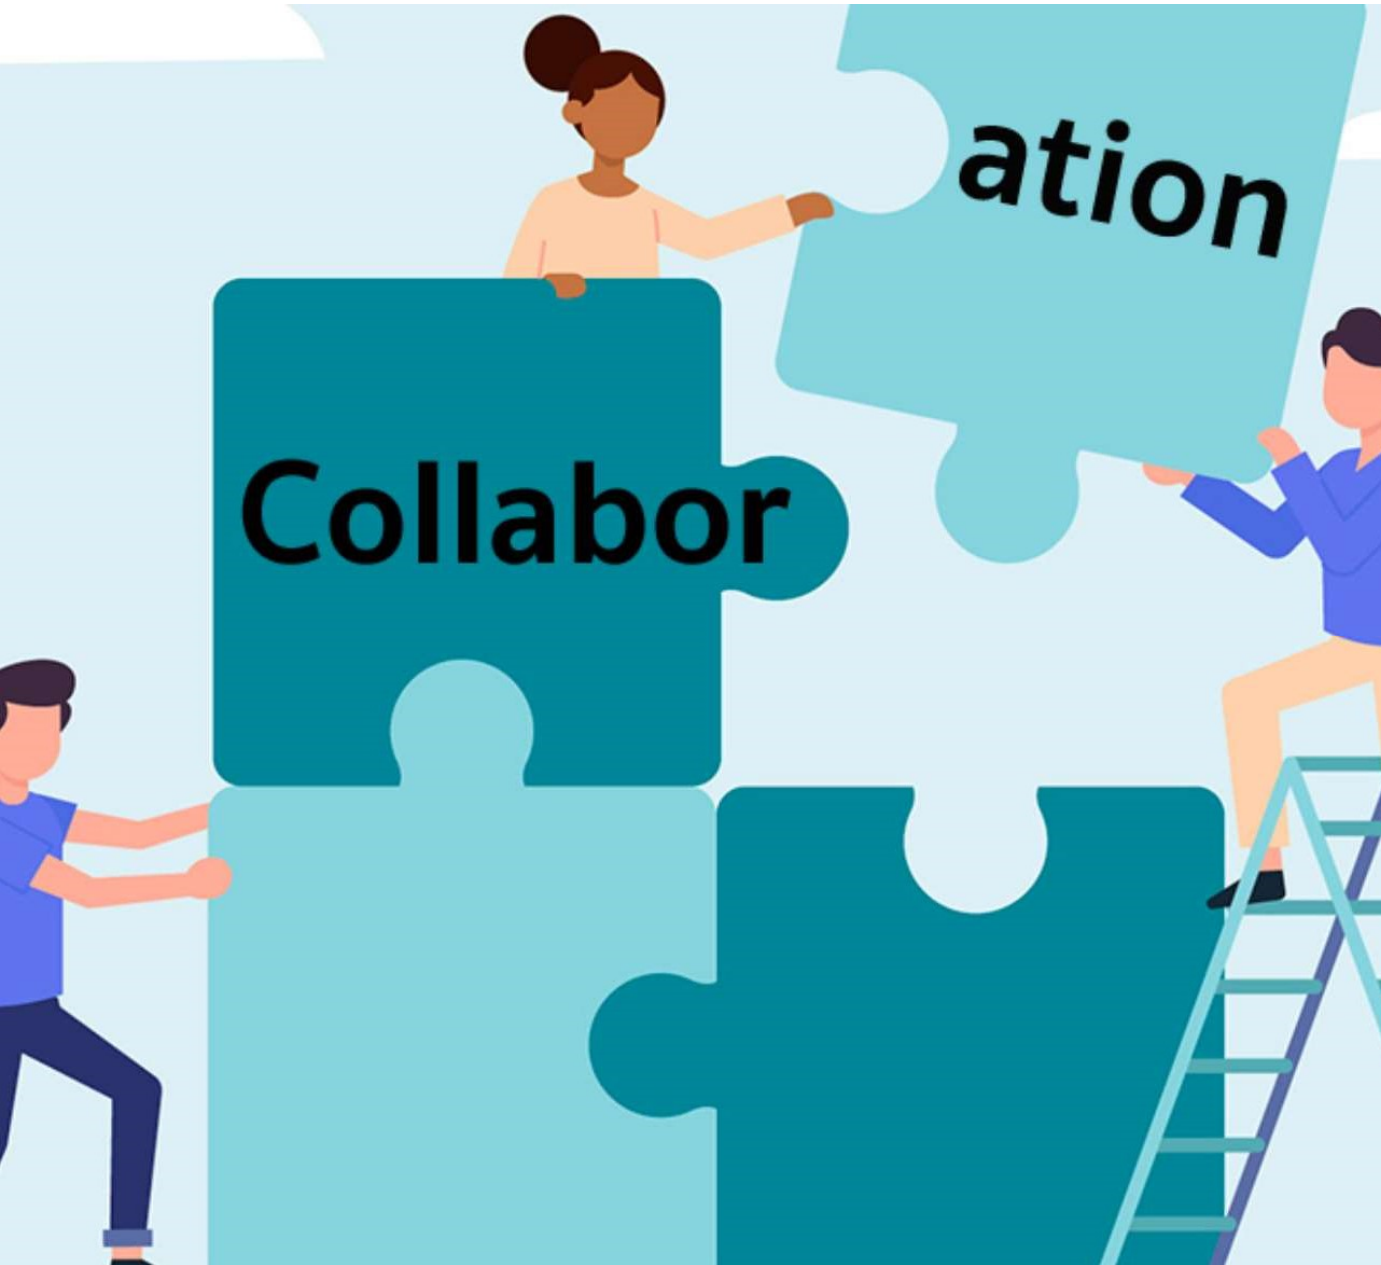

Participating in surveys and contacting the team with any suggestions or concerns will all contribute to the development of a recognised framework

Posters/Presentations

If you are attending SHOT or BBTS please come and talk to any members of the working group attending, the T2024 team or myself for more information.

• The development and success of the framework is dependent upon the feedback, suggestions and interaction with TPs and the working group.

• Feedback from the working group workshop on the 5th of March 2024.

• “Many of us have been in the role for a long period of time, the framework has to be a dynamic document reflecting the roles now and into the future”

• Julie Edmonds- working group member

Thank you for taking your time to read this and we look forward to working with you all soon.

If you require any further information, please contact Jennifer.rock@nhsbt.nhs.uk.
